TO INSPECT LOCAL MILITIA COMPANY

U. S. Army Officer Here Thursday Night for Inspection.—Public Invited to Assembly Hall.

Government inspection of the Second Separate Company will be made Thursday evening at the Assembly hall by Captain Edgar Ridenour of the regular army, who has been detailed for this purpose. Several members of the company look for a good showing in this inspection, the first one held in this city since the organization of the company. Seventy-two enlisted men is the enrollment now and more are expected, for the recruiting is going on steadily. The new armory and the full equipment received by the company has been an added incentive to join.

The public is cordially invited and urged to attend this inspection. It will be an opportunity to see the company at its best, with all equipment, drill and spirit, and going through the various drill movements to the best of their ability. The owners of the hall free of charge in order that the local militia unit may bring as much credit to itself and to this city as possible, through the advantage of a large floor to work out movements on.

The regular Tuesday drill will be held at the Assembly hall this evening to accustom the men to the new discipline.

With the arrival of eighty-four double steel lockers, the company has received practically their full quota of equipment and stands ready to take on any time. The new lockers are divided, one-half being for the regular clothing and equipment used at the drills, and the other half containing the blankets, kits, etc.

Forty-nine heavy army overcoats have also been received at the local armory, for all those men who may be unprovided with one. It is likely that the measurements of the rest of the men will be taken at the inspection Thursday night. Every man is required to have certain equipment, including a comb, soap, a towel, and a toothbrush.

BOWLERS APPEAR BEFORE COUNCIL

Local Pin Association Holds Conference With City Authorities on Sunday Bowling.

Officers of the Janesville Bowling association were at the city hall this afternoon to present to the city commission a request to secure permission for Sunday bowling in this city. The commission have three or four propositions under consideration, no definite plan had been decided upon previous to the conference.

The movement of the association to secure Sunday bowling is in no way connected with the attempts of the alley proprietors along that line, and is presented to the city officials in a totally different manner. Though there has been considerable litigation on the subject of Sunday bowling, this is the first effort of the bowlers themselves, working through their association, to have the Sunday closing ordinance canceled.

NEWS NOTES—MOVIELAND

Scene from "Her Nature Dance," a funny but artistic Keystone picture which is scheduled for early release.

"Mothers of France," starring Sarah Bernhardt, is to be shown soon in America.

It tells the story of a woman whose husband and son are killed in battle. Sarah Bernhardt is said to have been under fire for several of the scenes which were made on the front near Chalons.

This was before she left France for her present return to the stage in America.

It isn't her first movie. Another was shown here a year ago. That wasn't her first, either. The world's greatest actress was one of the first to recognize the possibilities of the motion picture. She was photographed in them first in a pictured version of "Camille."

THEY SAY—
That "Lonesome Chap" having been completed by Louise Huff and House Peters, "Freckles" will be Miss Huff's next play, with Jack Pickford as co-star.

That George Seban is a golf fan. That Chaplin's "Health Resort" will come hilariously forth in March. That Crane Wilbur will film "The Eye of Envy" and then "The Eleventh Commandment."

That "Misjudged," the ninth "peril" of "our girl reporters" series, is true to life. They do say it.

That the next Holmes railroad serial, "The Raiders," will show action going on in four rooms at one time.

That "The Greater Woman," Marjorie Rambeau's first screen role, to come out February 26, features a really wonderful character. Don't pause, if you were reading, though the adjective refers to the lady's soul. "Motherhood" and "The Debt" are to follow.

TO PROTECT FILM ANIMALS.
California legislators, at the current session at Sacramento, will consider a bill which is to be introduced at the instigation of the California Humane society, the effect of which, if passed, will make it a misdemeanor to show a picture which contains scenes in which there is evident practice of cruelty to animals.

FOUR BOUTS TONIGHT ON S. W. A. A. PROGRAM PROMISE TO BE FAST

Athletic Club Stages Fourth Mill of Season at Auditorium—Crowded House is Prediction.

Battling Swann, city, vs. Zps. Schuster, Oshkosh; six rounds at 124. Frankie Rumore, Rockford, vs. Ed. Harris, Milwaukee; six rounds at 133. Battling Check, Sheboygan, vs. Ed. Boehme, Milwaukee; eight rounds at 128. Billy Manns, Cleveland, vs. Harry Schuster, Milwaukee; ten rounds at 145.

Everything is in readiness for tonight's exhibit of the Southern Wisconsin Athletic association, the fourth show of the fight club and for which four bouts are on the program. The fighters are here and at three o'clock weighed in before Referee Duffy and a state boxing commission representative at the Auditorium. Each has brought a good sized delegation of backers. Frankie Rumore of Rockford was represented by a good sized following here as early as noon and the Illinois crowd it came that some twenty-five or thirty more fans would be here in time for the show. Beloit sports promoters and other line club sports men in evidence at the weigh-in to Beloit boxer appears on the card.

The ticket sale is reported large, locally, and another house fully as large as the last one is predicted by the S. W. A. A. backers. The call for the pasteborders at Beloit and at Rockford has been especially large, while Janesville fans will turn out en masse. Battling Swann is the only local fighter who appears tonight. He is matched with Zps Schuster of Oshkosh. Just what the Sawdust city lad has to offer is unknown and he is a dark horse visitor. Swann, however, is not afraid of him and as usual is expected to make a good showing.

Janesville fans have expressed disappointment because neither Kid Meyer nor Charlie Lyke appear on the card. From Meyers' showing at the exhibit before last local bugs are pulling strong for him and have anxiously awaited the announcement that he was being matched with some good boy of his type. It seems that Meyer and the promoters had a falling out over financial matters.

Lyke, the fighting farmer from La Prairie, would be another good attraction and would draw many who would attend just to see their favorite's appearance.

The main hour should be one of interest. It is between Billy Manns of Cleveland and Harry Schuster of Milwaukee. The battle is scheduled for the ten round route at 145. Manns was on his feet in this scene and that time he earned the applause of the entire house with his clean fighting and gameness.

Battling Check, the fighting smithy from Sheboygan, meets Ed. Boehme of Milwaukee. The latter has scored a kayo over Check this season, the pair having been on in the preliminary in one of Richie Mitchell's recent shows at Milwaukee. Check and Boehme are matched for eight rounds, and weighed in at 128 this afternoon.

Frankie Rumore, Rockford's little mant butler, meets Ed. Harris of Milwaukee. The latter has scored a kayo over Rumore six rounds unless there is a sleep-producer delivered.

Akron and Canton are now prospects for franchises in the center Pacific to replace Wheeling and Terre Haute. The Fort Wayne proposition still is open, according to reports provided the proper people are interested in backing a club, but Fort Wayne does not seem to entice over the plans so far made for its entry. Southwark seems to have dropped out of the bidding, though President Dickerson still has hopes for that town. The conditions proposed by Canton and Akron are that one town will not go in without the other.

The schedule of the Giants' second squad has been altered. The first team is booked for a game in Jersey City on Easter Sunday, April 8. On April 9 the little Giants will play the Interseals at the Polo grounds. On April 10 the Polo grounds will see its first 1917 double-header. The Giant cots will play the Interborough team in the early afternoon and at 2:30 the regulars will tackle the Columbia University team. The regulars will not get into New York until 2 o'clock that afternoon, but they will be rushed up to the Polo grounds as soon as they get in.

When Griffith and Jack Dunn made the swap which gave the Nationals little to San Crane it was with the understanding that each was to run his chances of obtaining the services of the players involved. It now appears Dunn is likely to be the one to get Jack Bentley, the southpaw pitcher, has refused to report to the Orioles. Bentley says he will give up baseball and stick to his farm at Sandy Spring, Md.

A Pittsburgh scribe, writing in behalf of the players says that because of the high price of foodstuffs players are justified in demanding at least as much as they were paid last year if not more. If Dave Fultz had caught that argument sooner he might not have called off the strike. But now about the poor fellows who are not fed at the expense of their clubs, yet have not received salary advances—some of the baseball scribes, for instance?

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER

It is the consensus of opinion among the American league managers that the New York Yankees are going to furnish a lot of trouble for the other seven teams in the circuit. Manager Donovan, himself, is said to harbor the notion that the Yanks will win the flag with something to spare if they are not visited with the series of misfortunes which played havoc with the outfit in 1916. Rowland, Jennings and Barry naturally do not concede this measure of strength to the New York entry as they have somewhat similar ideas about their own teams, but all three have gone on record as expecting Donovan to land his aggregation in the money.

Pilot Rowland of the White Sox was one of the most optimistic club leaders in attendance at the recent powwow in the metropolis. He declared the 1917 season would find the Windy City brigade stronger than ever before and that if the pitchers could maintain the pace they set late last season the team would surely win the flag. "Next year," he said, "I think the Yanks are the strongest club in the league."

The trade between Los Angeles and San Francisco means that Phil Kiermer will be the San Francisco first baseman this year, while Rube Ellis will attempt to fill Ping Bodie's place in the outfield. The San Francisco club gives Los Angeles Southpaw Charley Brown in exchange for the pair of ex-Angels. Brown was never much of a success with the Seals, but Manager Chance thinks he will go good in the Los Angeles climate.

Hans Wagner, who usually delays signing his contract until the last minute, put his name to the papers early this year, just to show where he stood. He signed up February 14, for $8,000, or $2,000 less than he has been getting. Honus says the out is perfectly proper, because he is not worth more money and that baseball conditions don't justify a higher salary for a player anyway. Mrs. Wagner will accompany Wagner to the training camp of the Pirates in March.

Walter Johnson's young son is reported to be seriously ill at the home of his parents, in Coffeyville, Kan., and unless the youngster rapidly improves the big pitcher may not come to Washington for the inauguration as he had intended.

CONNIE MACK'S TEAM ENIGMA OF LEAGUES

Phillies This Year Are Greatest Puzzle in Majors—Nobody Can Figure Them.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—The enigma of the baseball world is Connie Mack's team of Athletics. Whether it will begin to show something of the form predicted for it by 1917 by Mack when he began his historic dismemberment of the famous old Athletics is a puzzle that many baseball followers are trying to fathom today. Mack has the basis for a good baseball club. Unless he deliberately wrecks what he has accomplished since Eddie Collins and his collaborators departed from Philadelphia he undoubtedly will have a better chance to finish out of eighth place this year than was the case in 1916.

Mack has pieced together a very fair team of college baseball players. He has thickened here and there, adding some minor leaguers and retaining some cogs in the old machine until he has a club that cannot be counted the easy victim of every other club by any means.

The feat of the Athletics in twice jumbling the Yankees in a single day last summer was considered a huge joke by a great many, but there is more than one critic of the game who saw in that a foreboding of things to come, a return to power that once rested in the silent brain of Mack.

Mack has an infield that lacks a great deal of being a flivver. Almost any manager in the American league would be willing to part with many dollars to have Stuffy McInnis holding down first base. At second base a youngster, Grover, is destined to perform and he has built up something of a reputation.

In young Lawton Witt, the 20-year-old youth picked up more than a year ago by Mack, the elongated leader has one of the most promising infielders who has broken into the American league in years. He is aggressive, can hit and field like a fiend and uses his head.

On third base Mack promises to place a minor league recruit named Bates. Advance notices speak very highly of him.

The outfield will be composed of Bodie, Thrasher and Strunk have been holdouts and, while Mack has promised the veteran Strunk a raise, he has promised Bodie a long vacation unless he signs. Thrasher is a recruit, but is said to be a powerful, bitter and a clean, fast fielder. It is a hard hitting trio, with experience in two of the gardens.

The pitching staff undoubtedly will see no new faces. Joe Bush and Elmer Myers undoubtedly will bear the brunt of the burden, with several promising cubs to fall back upon. Two more pitchers who could perform consistently would make the Athletics a greatly feared club. Johnson and Nabors are the most promising other members of the staff.

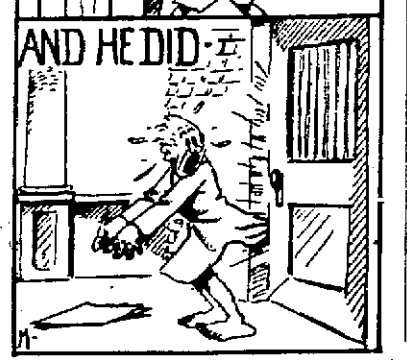

Wally Schang, Meyers, Eichen and Haley will fight for catching berths.

The Athletics present one of the strongest hitting combinations in baseball. They'll score plenty of runs against almost any kind of a baseball club. If they can get reasonable pitching it is fair to assume they will not finish in last place.

PAPER GLASS CONCERN'S PRODUCT IS MYSTERY.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Watertown, Feb. 27.—What product a plant, operated by the National Paper Glass Company will turn out is a mystery here. Several business men have capitalized and organized the company, and will establish an experiment station in two weeks. Joseph Becker has been retained as the company's chemist.
